

THE NEWS-LEADER

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.
SPRINGFIELD, KY.

E. L. DAVISON, Jr.,

THURSDAY, OCT. 15, 1908.

For Congress

We are authorized to announce HON. ION JOHNSON as a candidate for reelection to Congress from this the Fourth Congressional District. Subject to the action of the Democratic Party.

We are authorized to announce DR. DAVID W. GADDIE as a candidate on the Republican ticket for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce A. C. Kimball as a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff of Washington county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Deputies: Richard Bobbitt, Sam D. Campbell, Will Merritt Sanders and Robert Yiffin.

We are authorized to announce S. J. Anderson as a candidate for Sheriff of Washington county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Deputies: H. B. Middleman, Sam Hale, George Powell and Byron Crooke.

FOR COUNTY CLERK.

We are authorized to announce W. F. BOOKER as a candidate for the office of County Clerk subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary November 23, 1908. Election November 1909.

In our announcement column this week we publish the announcement of W. F. Booker, who is a candidate to succeed himself for the office of county clerk of Washington county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Booker has a record as a county official that it is safe to say, has never been equaled. He has been county clerk of Washington county for nearly forty years and has never had opposition in his election to that office from either his own party or from the Republicans. He has made an ideal clerk and keeps his office in order and up to date in every respect. His competency as an official and his personal popularity throughout the county guarantees to him his office, so long as he chooses to offer his services, for it is not likely that Mr. Booker will even be "threatened" with an opposing candidate.

The tobacco question is evidently to cut quite a figure in the coming elections.

John W. McMillen, one of the candidates for county assessor before the Democratic primary in Woodford county, is using quite a unique card in his campaign for the office. On one side of the card is a picture of the candidate, with the usual announcement of his candidacy. On the reverse side is a picture of a growing tobacco plant with this platform: "I am in favor of any man growing what he wants on his own land without dictation from any one. It is my intention to grow a crop of tobacco next year."

This is a platform which should be a winner.

The Courier-Journal's special correspondents, O. O. Stealey, Democrat, and J. S. Henry, Republican, who are engaged in finding out just how the election is going in November have reported on Indiana. The two correspondents practically agree that the Hoosier State is safely for Taft with the state ticket in doubt. They are now working on Illinois and have reported practically the same conditions there. Taft sure with a possibility of the election of a Democratic governor.

Would Mortgage the Farm.
A farmer on Rural Route 2, near Big Ga., W. A. Floyd by name says: "Buckley's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only $25 at Haydon & Robertson's drug store.

Taken up.

Hardin's Chapel

Mrs. Nellie Logsdon and son Ray spent Sunday with S. G. Logsdon and family.

Mr. Frank Haydon has resigned his position with the Home Comfort Range Co. and is at home for the present. Mr. Haydon says Washington county is large enough for him.

Mr. Harry Haydon was rendered unconscious for several hours on last Friday morning by a mule kicking him as he was gearing him up. However, no bones were broken, as he was only bruised in several places and considerably skinned up on the face.

Mr. and Mrs. Birt Coffee of near Texas spent several days last week with relatives at this place.

Died at the residence of T. R. Begley's about three miles from Texas, Mrs. Aretta Begley, widow of Mr. Tom Begley of this county. She drew her last breath at eight o'clock Friday morning in the 79th year of her age. On October 10th at 11 a. m. she was laid to rest in the cemetery at Bethlehem, Rev. G. W. Lyon conducting the funeral services. The deceased was the mother of several children of which only four are living, Mr. Woodson Begley of Boyle county, Mr. Cassa Begley of Fenwick, Mr. T. B. Begley with whom she was living until her death and Mrs. Susie Rinehart of Louisville. The deceased was a woman of strong character and a consistent Christian.

Miss Ethel Gray and brother of Hardesty were the guests of the Misses Haydon from Friday until Monday.

Mrs. Anna Griffin was the guest of Mrs. G. W. Fenwick Sunday.

Mrs. Susie Rinehart of Louisville was called to the deathbed of her mother, Mrs. Almira Begley Saturday.

Messrs. Willis and Warren Begley have bought a new buggy. Look out girls they will be around.

The rain which fell on last Friday was much needed and was of great benefit to our farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goodiet spent Sunday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Braak Yates of this place.

Mrs. Bell Laham spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Emily O'Connor of near Texas.

Mr. George Pennick spent Sunday and Monday in Lebanon.

Mr. G. W. O'Connor sold twenty steers to Mr. John and Will O'Connor of Texas. Price not given.

Rumor reports a wedding at this place soon.

The Last Resort.
A celebrated physician having asked a young man who was studying medicine under him at his examination, "What means he would use to promote perspiration in a particular disease, the student exhausted all the resources of his memory and imagination, and still the pertinacious old physician continued to bawl him out, 'Well, sir, and if that failed, then what would you do?'"

The lad, driven to his wit's end, at last exclaimed: "Then, sir, I would send him to you to be examined, and, if that did not make him sweat, if he my opinion his case would be hopeless."

Interior Decorating.

Mrs. Graham's hobby is house decoration. "Our day she was careless enough to drink a glass of red ink, believing it to be claret. She was a good deal scared when she discovered her mistake, but no harm came to her. The doctor who was summoned, upon hearing what had happened, dryly remarked, 'Mrs. Graham, there's such a thing as pushing this rage for decorated interiors too far.'"

Couldn't Chill His Wit.
Miss Modjeska and her company were playing one winter in the extreme north, much to the discomfort of Count Boleslaw, the Polish war's husband. But at that time the show business was at a very low ebb in the south. One particularly cold day Miss Modjeska found the count shivering from head to foot in spite of the steam heat in the hotel.

"Oh, my dear, my dear!" he implored. "Let us go south for the rest of the season. This climate will kill us."

"But, my dear," replied Madame, "the south is dead."

"Yes," said the count, "but she is such a beautiful corpse."

Who Were Going.
The streets are paved with real gold and there will be music and flowers, and everything will be beautiful!" finished the Sunday school teacher, who was telling her small charges of heaven.

"And now tell me," she continued, "what kind of little boys and girls are going there?"

"Nobody knew. Then from one corner a small brown hand shot up. 'Samuel!' the teacher smiled.

"Please, teacher, dead ones!"—Lipstick.

Jack Kottmeier or as he was famously known "Jack Pegleg"
well known old colored character of the town, died on Sunday of Bright's disease. He had lost a leg early in life. He was a shoemaker and had worked at his trade in Springfield for about 20 years.

sociation at Columbus, O., in honor of which young men
could be proud.

Nad Hardin, the negro who has figured so often in the local court is again "in bad." He was tried last week before Judge Litsey on the charge of housebreaking. The offense is said to have occurred last summer when the boarding car belonging to Douglas royalty's saw mill gang was broken into and a number of articles taken. The circumstantial evidence against the prisoner was quite strong and the court held him over to the next grand jury on 150.00 bond.

Our work room is complete with new trimmings to freshen up your old hats.
Also a nice line of untrimmed hats to trim to your order. Miss Knott

Held Over.

Ben Lancaster, a young negro was tried before Judge Litsey on the charge of housebreaking and was held over to the grand jury.
The prosecuting witness was Mrs.
Mary Vest who claims that the negro broke into her house during her absence and stole some clothing which belonged to her deceased husband. Lancaster was arrested in Nelson county
and brought back for trial.

Family Reunion.

The Shirley family spent a pleasant day in reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo.
Walker, near Mackville last week. The members of the family who were present were:
Mrs. George Walker, the hostess
G. W. Shirley, wife and child;
Mrs. Shirley Brown, of Sharpe-ville; Mrs. W. M. Keeling, Mrs.
M. L. Searcy, and Mrs. Haze;
Hale and daughter of Illinois;
Mrs. John L. Searcy and daughter Louise, of Nara Vista, N. M.

Primary Called.

The Democratic County Committee met Saturday and called a primary election for the selection of Democratic candidates for county offices to be voted for on Saturday, November 28th. All of the present officials who are eligible are likely to be candidates to succeed themselves and in several instances some lively contests are promised.

Reunion.

There is to be a grand reunion
and celebration at a grove on Squire Nimrod Hendren's place
near Williamsburg on Saturday, October 24. The gathering will not be a political one, as will be seen by those who are to take part in it, which are the veterans of the Blue and the Gray, the Mexican War veterans, the Spanish-American, the ladies of the G. A. R. and the Daughters of the Confederacy. There will be music and speaking and plenty to eat and a general good time
is anticipated.

Stock Sales.

There have been quite a number of public sales of live stock and personal property in the county recently. The sale of B. B. Leachman's on last Wednesday was strictly a stock sale
and the stock sold very well considering the drought and the high price of feed. We note the following prices: 60 head of good young ewes at $5 to $6 a head,
a registered Hereford bull $30, 11 head of two-year-old mules at
